Ojeda, Villafuerte Belie Visual Progress in Naga City under LP

Ex-Mayor Victorino L. Ojeda and former Vice-Mayor Mariano R. Villafuerte Jr. yesterday rallied all city Nacionalistas to unite in a common effort for a political crusade that will eventually bring them back to power after the November polls.

Ojeda and Villafuerte headed the political combine that gave local NPs political control over the city administration after winning the '59 elections.

The two NP leaders emphasized the need of defeating the Liberal party ticket led by Mayor Vicente P. Sibulo to establish an eventual tieup with President Marcos' progress goals for local governments.

An overall program for city development could only be fully realized if the NPs win in the coming polls here, the two said. For the LPs to speak now of implementing a coordinated progress plan for the city after the '67 elections would be "a mere political catch-on" because Mr. Marcos is still in Malacanang for the next two years, Ojeda and Villafuerte said.

Ojeda recalled that all the LP's claims for "originality" in completing vital projects like the city market, public streetlighting, beautification and

Farmers Cautioned On Pesticides

The Parks and Wildlife Office has recently cautioned government agencies and private individuals against excessive use of raticides and other insect controls to bolster their rice production efforts.

It was pointed out that pesticides kill, not only rats and other insects but also cats, owls and snakes which are the predators responsible for checking the population growth of the pests. To safeguard

Frivaldo Roasted Secretary M. Balatbat In Cebu City

Commerce Secretary Marcelo Balatbat recently tried hard to enlighten the Cebu Jaycees on what the government is doing to develop tourism but got burned in a searing open forum.

Three alert Jaycees took turns roasting Balatbat on the Aguilar Namarco deal. Another Jaycee asked why most Nacionalista candidates are just pointed to by Malacanang.

But the most telling shots were fired by Sorso-gon Gov. Juan G. Frivaldo who had the cabinetman burning in his seat. The governor was in Cebu as guest of the PAL inauguration flight on the Manila - Legazpi - Cebu thrice weekly flight.

Frivaldo asked Balatbat why despite the ₱6 mil-

U.S. Admiral To Visit 'Sailor Town' In Southern Luzon

U.S. NAVAL BASE, Subic Bay (PAO) — Nabua, a town in Camarines Sur province noted for its many active and retired U.S. Navy personnel, will throw wide open its doors for an American admiral next week.

Rear Admiral Fillmore B. Gilkerson, commander of this Seventh Fleet logistics support installation, will be in the landlocked municipality of 80,000 inhabitants on Wednesday, Oct. 4.

He will be on a People-to-People mission for his government, at the same time swapping naval memories with some of the town's 140 retired U.S. Navy men.

America's People-to-People Program, a worldwide project instituted during the Eisenhower administration, has gone far and wide in the Philippines. One of the more the provincial capital at 10:30 for the 50-minute overland ride to Nabua.

The admiral and party will have lunch at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ricardo B. Orias, parents of Ely U. Orias who serves on the public affairs staff of Admiral Gilkeson.

After lunch the visitors will make a one-hour tour of Nabua, with glimpses of homes of active and retired USN personnel residing in the poblacion.

By mid-afternoon official ceremonies start, with Admiral Gilkeson presenting Project Handclasp materials from the American people to Nabua High School, the poblacion's primary and elementary schools, and the municipal health center. Some underprivileged children, designated by a local charitable organization will also receive dolls and other toys.

The Americans donation consists of library and text books, athletic equipment, medical supplies, home economics materials, paint and toys.

The day's festivities will be capped with a dinner-dance in the admiral's honor to be sponsored by the municipal council, teachers and members of the local Fleet Reserve Association and their ladies. Speeches, folk dances and exchange of token gifts will highlight the affair.

Admiral Gilkeson will speak, underscoring Nabua's contribution of personnel to the service of the different branches of the U.S. armed forces.

Some 278 sons of Nabua, for example, are currently serving in various capacities in the U.S. Navy. Around 140 have preceded them and are now comfortable retired. Others are in the U.S. Coast Guard while a few are with the U.S. Army, U.S. Air Force and U.S. Marine Corps.

The Subic visitors will depart Nabua for Naga City midnight of Oct. 4 for their overnight billets at the Holiday Hotel in the provincial capital. A breakfast the following day is scheduled for Admiral Gilkeson with Gov. Malena, Mayor Sibulo, City Fiscal Luis B. Uvero, Father Candelaria of Ateneo de Naga, and other officials.

After breakfast, Admiral Gilkeson and party will head for P-1 where the Subic Commander's HU-16, an amphibious aircraft, awaits them for the flight back to Zambales.

lion BTTI tourist tax income not one centavo has been spent to develop tourist spots in Cebu, Bicolandia, Mindanao or Northern Luzon. The governor asked why 76% of BTTI funds are spent on personnel and administration leaving hardly 24% to tourism development and promotion.

Balablat lamely tried to ease out by explaining that BTTI funds were used to develop Lueta, Fort Santiago, Parian Gate, Pao Cemetery and a P2 million hotel in Corregidor.

But Frivaldo floored him by revealing that the P2 million to put up the hotel in Corregidor was not BTTI funds but borrowed from the bank, that the public understands the Lueta, Intramuros, Fort Santiago and Pao Cemetery were the work of Doroy Valencia and Mrs. Imelda Marcos, but hardly BTTI.

The governor added that BTTI is top heavy with commissioners, deputy commissioners, technical assistants and 300 employees and casuals. Frivaldo said the board members and commissioners receive P3,000 monthly allowance compared to the P6,000 annually received by former tourism commissioner Modesto Farolan.

Frivaldo's last salvo was despite government efforts to invite foreign investors, we fail not only to attract foreign capital but instead Filipino capital have been steadily flying out of the country. Frivaldo said a Filipino industrialist have invested heavily in Australia, two Filipino businessmen have set up two home appliances factories in Hongkong, two big hotels in Hongkong are owned or partly owned by Filipinos, the millions of profits from a plush Makati subdivision have been reinvested in a rich residential district in Sevilla and Barcelona, Spain.

The governor bewailed even in troubled Indonesia two big Filipino businessmen and insurance companies have invested heavily. Why cannot these local capital be invested in our own young and poor country, Frivaldo asked. Why? why, Frivaldo shouted.

The new BICOL HOTEL in Legazpi City is a private enterprise. But it is contributing a great deal to the development of tourism not only in this city but in the Bicol region. It serves as a big "come-on" to both domestic and international tourists. Could not the city government do something to extend assistance to it?

x x x

Main problem of the hotel, we were told, is the road entrance leading to it. It is always crowded during market days. Cars going to the hotel could hardly pass. Not only that. The street entrance near the city periculture center is, most of the time, clogged with piles of rubbish. And the smelly stinks to high heavens. Maybe, the city government can install a number of trash or garbage cans for waste disposal. It will certainly create a good impression to tourists to have the road entrance clear and clean. Let us, by all means, help develop local tourism!

x x x

Our informant from city hall told us that the city finances is not exactly good. He promised to give us a "startling revelation" as to its causes. Our informant is the spokesman of Mayor LOS BAÑOS.

x x x

The political battle in the city hall, we were told, is between incumbent City Mayor LUIS S. LOS BAÑOS and the two IMPERIALS—Rep. CARLING IMPERIAL and NP mayorally bet GOYITO IMPERIAL. The city executive then must be waging an uphill fight for retention of his political power.

x x x

After the November 14th voting, the country is bound to lose the services of such veteran lawmakers as senators Manahan, Sumulong and Manglapus. Another good member of the senate who had done a good job but who incurred the ire of congressmen for fighting against the grant of their excessive allowances is Senator Antonino. He is conducting a single-handed battle for his re-election. Can he make it?

x x x

Comments we heard in local coffee shops said that the city electorate is going to choose between past achievements of Mayor LOS BAÑOS and the unlimited assistance being extended by the two IMPERIALS to the voters, especially those from the barrios in the form of employment in public works projects.

x x x

When Pres. Marcos came here recently to proclaim the national, provincial and city official NP candidates, he told Gov. PEPING S. ESTEVEZ to prepare and submit to him projects amounting to P300,000. When asked what particular projects he has got in mind, Gov. ESTEVEZ said preference will be given to rural development, particularly self-help ones that will be of great benefit to the masses.

x x x

Here is a very timely warning to voters who would attempt to register more than once for the November election. COMLEC Chairman Juan Borra stressed that "it would be a criminal offense if there be a double or multiple registration."
