Seminar on . . .
(From page 1)

It must be recalled that Col. Jimenez, much earlier before had been advocating the formation of an Integrated Transport System in the country as a means of improving our much expanding transport complex. He will strongly bat for the early formation of an Integrated Transport System, it is understood.

Other big transportation firms that will bring in participants are the PAL, ALATCO, other big land transportation in the Bicol Region representatives, Coastwise shipping and Ferry Transportation Executives, Civic groups and Professionals.

The forthcoming seminar will bring to the fore the long time topic that the PNR Manager has been expounding in most of his public appearances. He had been quoted as telling his audiences that the Philippines must have an Integrated Transport System to take care of the public transport complex for efficient coordination. In other countries like England and Japan they have the Ministry of Transport to take care of their Transport Complex because only in efficient handling of transportation could a nation effectively help its commerce and industry.

levels, committees will also be created.

"The selection of a model barrio of a municipality will be handled by a municipal committee, a model barrio by the regional committee." The final selection, however, will be handled by the National Selection Committee," Maceda explained.

One among the major considerations in the selection of the best barrio is the manifestation of the bayanihan spirit which means that most of the community projects have been put up with minimum assistance from outside sources.

The purpose of the SEATO-PACD tie-up undertaking is to backstruff community development operations not only in the country but also in other SEATO-member countries through models and demonstrations.

The prizes at stake for the best barrio in the whole country is P3,000 cash plus a golden plaque, while the three model barrios for each region will re-

Maybe whatever happened to Bantay, Ilocos Sur is for the best. Look what is happening? First, the cogon grass houses of Ora Centro and Ora Este are now replaced by strong materials. Second, it brought to the fore the group of Fr. Araneta who can find in the case a chance to practice their fighting stance for future fights. Third, those that have been talking only thru the wind can now show the public that they too can mean business. And lastly, for future references, whatever other groups will do in connection with Bantay will do it with surefire sincerity and justice, not for palabas, because the case is not a joke anymore.

Fetil-Ballena wedding

CANAMAN, Camarines Sur - Rev. Fr. Orlando P. Pagapong officiated the wedding rites of Miss Marina Fetil and Salvador Ballena solemnized at the Canaman parish church last Thursday morning, August 6.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tomas Fetil of San Jose Pili, Camarines Sur, while the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Pracsidiso Ballena of Canaman, Cam. Sur.

Principal wedding sponsors were: Mr. and Mrs. Tomas Severo.

After the wedding rites reception held at the bride's residence in San Jose, Pili, Camarines Sur.

ceive P2,000 and a silver plaque each.

However, the 1,000 dollars offered by SEATO as award to only one barrio was increased to 2,000 dollars to be distributed as follows: 1,500 dollars for prizes and 500 dollars for miscellaneous expenses such as plaques, office supplies and traveling expenses of PACD representatives.

Rev. Fr. Araneta and his group demands resignation from the Crisologos. I will also ask Fr. Araneta to resign from his priesthood to make the fight even. I hate to witness an uneven fight. There is no fun in it. Even in boxing, there must be equal chance. Poor Vincent, he will have no rooters while Chavit will have Fr. Araneta and his group. Hometown decision and partisan crowd. Foul!

I heard Mayor Vincent Sibulo the other day talked on insurance protection and Savings Plan wisdom. Boy, the Mayor can sell heavy in insurance. He can be an star Insurance man, the way he dished his selling points. Or, was his eloquence on the topic inspired by the presence of his fellow Jaycees? The imported drinks and the sumptuous foods?

Congress 4th floor got burnt the other day. Well, there is still a stronger force to put Congress on fire than the force of the student demonstrators despite the moral support of Tauruc and Fr. Araneta and Raul Manglapus. Congress lower floors however were saved by our Manila Firefighters.

We have now in Naga City an office of a Company that will engage in sugar production. Well, what happened to the BIDECO plan to put up a sugar central in this area? CALLING VITOY OF THE BIDECO! Are we good only in planting eggplants and pichay?

Max Soliven in his column said RP democracy is dying of social cancer. No. RP is dying of too much talk. Let us save RP by working. Let us save RP by producing, not analysing.

I have known Nano Querol for over two decades now. The fellow have not changed since the first time I have met him. He kibitz. That is what is nice about him. He doesn't relax and give a fellow a quarter the moment he starts opening his salvo.
