

"Voice of 100,000 Teachers"
Official Organ

of the Philippine Public School Teachers Association

Ricardo Castro, Editor

Quirico A. Cruz, Managing Editor

(Member: INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION EDITORS ASSOCIATION)

Vol. XII

FEBRUARY, 1958

No. 9

Contents

Benito Mencias	3	Rice and Fall
Miguela Solis	6	Living and Learning Develop Children
Pedro T. Orata	10	Education and Public Relations
Marcelino Bautista	14	Thailand: Educational Statistics
Gaudencio V. Aquino	19	A Barrio Teacher Attends a Workshop
Luz E. Sangalang	25	Re-evaluating Our Guidance Program
Laureano Avendano	27	Looking Ahead
Cosme S. Quinto	29	Administrative Discipline
Hermogenes F. Belen	31	A New Home Industry for Panay
Paraluman S. Aspillera	33	Elementary Lessons for Non-Tagalogs
Carlos G. Beltran	35	Lead Us On...!
R. I. Cruz	37	Let Us Do Some Quick Thinking
T. I. Reyes	39	Materials for "Be My Valentine" Unit
Benigno C. Bagabaldo	40	Our Filipino Patriots and Their Achievements
	42	Pretty Teachers and Best Schools
Benjamin C. Batalla	43	A Unit on Thrift
S. M. Lanzanas	46	Knowing the Adult Education Supervisor Better
Salvador B. Espinas	47	Nicanor
Romeo P. Baniyas	49	The Forgotten Entry
Victor C. Malolot	50	Collection of Maxims on Education
Francisco C. Alcantara	51	Teacher Monopoly: An Educational Waste
Benedicto Duran Ortiz	53	School Teachers in Bolivia
Narajan Singh Uppal	56	Three B's of Assamese Culture
Pedro N. Manoos	58	WAPCO'S "Geographic Differentials"
Faustino Domine	60	A Whisper to Fellow Teachers
Jack Smith	62	The Teaching of Optional Physics
Harold H. Drummond	64	How Can We Decide What to Teach?

Subscription Rates

The Philippine Educator is the official organ of the Philippine Public School Teachers Association, published monthly for ten months during the year. Approved by the Director of Public Schools.

Rates of subscription: P8.00 a year (ten issues), P.90 per copy. Foreign countries—P16.00 ($8.00) a year (ten issues).

Entered as second class mail matter in the Manila Post Office.

Office of publication—27 Banawe, corner Quezon Blvd. extension, Quezon City.
Tel. 6-51-73.