

El Papa pide a pudientes en todo el mundo socorran a los hambrientos

(Especial a LA VANGUARDIA)
Estocolmo, 3 de septiembre.—Con motivo del quinto aniversario de la guerra europea, Su Santidad, el Papa Pío XII, en una radiación mundial a través de la radio del Vaticano anoche, apelo al mundo entero recordando a los que disponen de grandes reservas de alimentos y otras provisiones que no los guarden exclusivamente para sí para conseguir ganancias indebidas sino que los distribuyesen entre los hambrientos.

La Iglesia siempre ha reconocido la propiedad privada y aunque es verdad que la propiedad privada es fruto del trabajo del hombre, la Iglesia no puede reconocer en la propiedad privada el falso concepto del capitalismo, por ejemplo, dijo el Papa.

Los derechos fundamentales de todas las clases deben ser mantenidos y los tremendos problemas sociales y económicos que afronta la humanidad deben ser resueltos. Debe haber una elevación del prelaciado porque este es uno de los principios morales del Cristianismo. Su Santidad declaró además: "Siempre hemos observado a una interminable masa de obreros que han conseguido evadir sus deberes sociales. Por un lado, vemos a una ilimitada multitud de los que nada tienen mientras que por el otro vemos grandes riquezas concentradas y al plutócrata contra el pobre pero dice que la propiedad es un prerequisite necesario de la vida humana y de los derechos y la dignidad del hombre."

La política social del futuro tendrá que proteger la propiedad personal. La propiedad personal de todos debe ser igualmente garantizada. Sin embargo, la propiedad privada jamás debe eclipsar a la propiedad general, recordó. La primera debe ser parte de la segunda, dijo el Papa. Terminó su alocución con una Bendición Apostólica.

Hablando de sus impresiones de la conferencia, Gelezniakoff dijo que se sintió hondamente conmovido por el fervor y sinceridad de los varios delegados. Siendo miembro del comité de especialistas en asuntos urbanos, Gelezniakoff habló de los esfuerzos leales de los rusos blancos hacia el aumento de la producción tanto agrícola como industrial.

Con respecto a las empresas agrícolas de sus compatriotas, Gelezniakoff mencionó a cosacos del distrito de Sahnó que evacuaron de Harbin abandonando sus varias ocupaciones y que ahora están trabajando en los campos. En el campo industrial, cito cierta firma rusa blanca, donde el 95 por ciento del personal son rusos blancos, dedicados a la fabricación de implementos agrícolas y productos alimenticios.

El informe atribuye además al alto mando la declaración en que admite que las columnas niponas están surgiendo en grandes oleadas de una región a lo largo de la línea ferroviaria Hunan-Kwangsi.

Firme avance por la llanura de Hunan

(De la Agencia Domei)
Desde el frente de Gunan, 3 de septiembre. Lanzando una ofensiva de sorpresa en la madrugada del 29 de agosto contra unas 20 divisiones enemigas que penetraron en el sector al sudoeste de Hengyang, de la cuarta, sexta y séptima zonas de guerra, las fuerzas japonesas se hallan actualmente prosiguiendo su progresiva campaña contra el enemigo. Pechungfeng, a ocho kilómetros al oeste de Leiyang, en un ataque de sorpresa contra Yangtseung, punto básico en el río Alyuang, tribu-ario del río Hsiang, asestaron un golpe devastador a las tropas enemigas.

Continuando su vigoroso avance, las unidades japonesas redujeron el 1.º del actual Kutun y se aproximaron al enemigo en un punto a seis kilómetros al este de Changning, punto básico enemigo a 50 kilómetros al sur de Hengyang, sembrando el pánico en el 86.º y 37.º ejércitos enemigos.

Mientras tanto otras unidades de las fuerzas japonesas que entraron en acción desde Yungfeng, batieron a cinco divisiones enemigas pertenecientes al 179.º y 74.º ejércitos y en la mañana del 30 de agosto capturaron Chingshung, 30 kilómetros al sudoeste de Yungfeng. Actualmente las fuerzas japonesas están avanzando sobre Chiehling en furiosa persecución de las tropas enemigas en fuga.

En el entretanto las unidades del ala derecha de las fuerzas japonesas que iniciaron la ofensiva desde Hengyang, redujeron Chaklang el 29 de agosto y al día siguiente ocuparon Lungchingchiao y Mengkungyu. Despues de la reducción de Tungchungku, a 30 kilómetros al oeste de Hengyang, el 1.º de septiembre, las mismas unidades japonesas se hallan ahora en feroz persecución de las dos divisiones del enemigo pertenecientes al 87.º ejército.

Otras unidades japonesas que iniciaron la acción en la parte sur de Hengyang en la noche del 29 de agosto, llegaron a una línea que es Tiekungyung, Chengchiling y Sishan y como resultado de estas operaciones frescas tropas japonesas están ahora librando batalla con el enemigo en una línea que se extiende unos 100 kilómetros y que a Yungfeng con el norte y Changning con el sur.

Japon envia fuerte queja a...

también que Drew Pearson, escritor de la columna "Washington Merry-Go-Round", ha revelado que Francis Walter, representante por Pennsylvania, ha regalado al Presidente Roosevelt un corta-papeles hecho con el hueso del antepaño de un soldado japonés muerto en el Pacifico.

"El gobierno japonés ha quedado estupefacto al enterarse de que los soldados de los Estados Unidos hayan profanado los restos de los soldados japoneses que murieron muertes honorosas en el frente y los hayan enviado a su país como recuerdos y que algunos ciudadanos americanos los hayan aceptado y hayan permitido que se jugase con ellos como si fueran juguetes.

"Esta no solamente es una violación abierta y grave de las disposiciones de los Artículos 3 y 4 del Convenio de Ginebra de 1929 para el alivio de la situación de los heridos y enfermos de los ejércitos del frente sino una imperdonable violación también de los principios de humanitarismo.

"Como un ejemplo de lo que podría considerarse como la causa que ha dado lugar a la perpetración poco excusable de semejante atrocidad como la mencionada arriba, el siguiente hecho se podría citar, a saber, que la edición del 3 de abril de 1942 del New York Times publicó un facsímil de una tarjeta titulada "Licencia para Comprar Japoneses". Llevaba la firma del General de Brigada Robert Drugg de la Infantería de Marina de Estados Unidos y tales palabras como 'Veña levantada, municiones y equipos gratis con sueldo. Unase a la Infantería de Marina de Estados Unidos.'

"Distribuyendo estas licencias

entre los jóvenes de edad para alistamiento las autoridades de Estados Unidos consideran a los subditos japoneses como si fueran bestias salvajes. Reclutados y entrenados en un espíritu tan inhumano, los soldados americanos, se puede concluir, han adoptado naturalmente una actitud cruel contra los soldados japoneses y profanando sus cadáveres.

"Por la presente, el Gobierno Japonés presenta una muy enfática protesta al Gobierno de los Estados Unidos contra el acto inhumano arriba mencionado de profanar los cadáveres de los soldados japoneses.

"El Gobierno Japonés demanda que el Gobierno de los Estados Unidos cesen inmediatamente con los debidos honores los huesos en cuestión y tome adecuadas y efectivas medidas con el fin de que tales atrocidades nunca más se repitan por los soldados y ciudadanos de Estados Unidos'.

En el curso de la misma conferencia, el Portavoz Iguti se refirió a un informe de que el Departamento de Estado de los Estados Unidos anunció ayer que el Gobierno de los Estados Unidos está negociando arreglos para que un barco japonés vaya a un puerto cerca de Vladivostok para sacar 1,500 toneladas de cargamento acumulado de socorros para los prisioneros de guerra e internados americanos que están en manos japonesas. El Portavoz añadió que el arreglo propuesto por el Departamento de Estado de Estados Unidos pide un oficial japonés que pudiera considerar la proposición americana a fin de que el procedimiento y el lugar puedan acordarse por los dos gobiernos interesados.
