DELEGATES FROM RUSSIA

Reversing its previous stand the USSR is sending two delegates to the London conference which has been called for the trial of those accused of being war criminals.

Jap Navy Is Badly Crippled

Two partly converted battle-Nyaga; the battleship Nagato and ships, and half carrier, the Ise and two other old battleships not in commission, approximately 30 des-Forrest Sherman, Deputy Chief of Staff of Admiral Nimitz:

Besides an undetermined number of submarines, the following surface ships are all that is left of the once proud Imperial Japanese Navy, according to Rear Admiral not ready for service.
