

Our Singing Club By PEPITA OZOA (16 YEARS OLD)

of our teachers is a very ing a picnic. worthwhile."

and girls wanted to join. below the dam. Our teacher "tried out" all At noon the mess-call

A Day at Asin By PABLO PAGILO (13 YEARS OLD)

AT our school there is no NEAR Baguio, where I live, IN our town a skating pavtime for teaching music, there are some hot springs ilion was opened. Many of although there are many of called Asin. The electric my friends wanted to learn us who like music very company has made a dam to skate, and so did I. None much. We think it would there to secure water power of us had ever had roller be more practical if we for generating current. A skates on, and we were all learned some music instead fine swimming pool has afraid to try, but finally a of some of the other things been constructed, and there few were brave enough to which are taught us. One is a splendid place for hav- make a beginning. I was musical woman, plays the Two bus-loads of us went pavilion were attendants piano quite well, and is a one morning to spend the who would teach girls ungood singer. So she said to day at Asin. We took bath- able to skate.

some of us, "Let us organ-ling suits and plenty of food As soon as our skates ize a singing club. You for a picnic, such as dozens were strapped on, an atcan meet at my home one and dozens of sandwiches, tendant placed me on one or two evenings each week, cakes, melons, fruits, etc. side of him and my friend and we can learn some We arrived at Asin about on the other and we started. splendid songs. We will ten o'clock in the morning, 'At first I was afraid I would all enjoy it, and besides, it and within a few minutes fall, but I soon learned to will be learning something many of us were in the keep my balance. If my swimming pool having a friend or I began to lose So the new club was an-glorious time. Others went our balance, the attendant nounced. Nearly sixty boys to a natural swimming pool took us by the arm until we were again steady.

In a little while I was the voices. "We must have was sounded and we all not afraid at all, and my our chorus well balanced— trooped to the eating place. friend was no longer afraid just the right number of Such a feast as it was! We either. Then the attendant sopranos, of altos, of tenors, were all hungry, so we ate left us, and my friend and and of basses, and a wait- and ate. After every one I went skating together, (Please turn to page 303.) (Please turn to page 303.) (Please turn to page 303.)

Learning to Skate By NATY FLORES (12 YEARS OLD)

one of these. At the skating

SINGING CLUB (Continued from page 299)

ing list to fill vacancies again at the lower dotted the part marked "lower to time. So she chose 45 more.

Friday night-from 7:30|15. to 9:00 o'clock. Our teacher we learn to sing well many songs from these. Each group practices their part separately, and then we all sing together. We have now learned about twelve very good songs. As soon as we have enough songs learned, we are going to give a concert.

At each meeting of our club we always have a few visitors who like to hear us sing. Some of these are good singers, and they join in with us in singing some of the selections.

We all enjoy our singing I tried it. club very much, and hope that other schools will follow our example.

DAY AT ASIN

(Continued from page 299) possible to take another rest a little while.

resting, into the water we had been a great success.

THE FLAPPING BIRD (Continued from page 293)

which will occur from time line, as shown in Figure 13. neck" and pull its tail. This Now take the head and of the best singers, and fold it down into itself, as down. Let go the tail and made a waiting list of ten shown in Figure 14. The the wings will go up. The last step is to pull the tail bird may require a little We meet two times each down so that it slants out-loosening up before it flaps week-Tuesday night and ward as shown in Figure satisfactorily.

The flapping bird is now toy and is a good example has a number of High folded, but you must know of paper-folding. It is not School Chorus Books and how to make it flap its so difficult to make as it

> LEARNING TO SKATE (Continued from page 299) arm in arm.

We go to the skating pavilion each Saturday CITIZEN has received three evening, and enjoy skating different correct solutions very much. Sometimes we to its Arranging Numbers have a skating party, and Puzzle published in the then we all have a very July number. One of the happy time.

Skating is good exercise, arranged thus: and affords a very happy pastime. I think all boys and girls should learn to skate. It is much easier to learn than I thought before 10, of the Puzol Barrio went again. How we did enjoy it! We splashed, and dived, and swam just as long as we wished. About four Noime Gutlay, o'clock we began to dress Cera, and Federico Quinto, had eaten until it was im- and get ready to go home. On the road home we Mangaldan mouthful, we sat down to talked and laughed and School, Pangasinan; Filisang songs. After about an hour of agreed that our day at Asin V, of the Burgos Elemenwings. All you have to do to make it move is to hold will make the wings go

This is quite an amusing sounds when you first read these instructions.

ARRANGING NUMBERS

So far THE YOUNG solutions had the numbers

1	6
5	7
9	2

Little Josefa Pascua, age School, Pinili, Ilocos Norte, sent in the first correct solution. Others who have sent in correct solutions: Corazon all in Grade VI-3 of the Elementary Everybody pina G. Bumagat, Grade tary School, Ilocos Norte.