management seven demands and these demands have been taken on several table conferences between the Union and Management but up to the present time, the Management have not done anything to implement these demands. They are not asking any increase of wages but plain justice for the employees. Fiderexon, averred.

Among the demands presented and which the Union wants to be implemented are the proper evaluation of salaries, proper implementation of promotions, removal of casual employees and removal of political interference in matters of appointing employees to key positions. These demands, if not carried out will very much work against the regular employees and the Bank as well.

As an example to the proper implementation of promotion, Mr. Fiderexon cited the specific case of Atty. Mariano Trinidad who headed by JECKK president Tokio Nagayama. They were accompanied to Malacanan by Economic Coordinator Eleuterio Adevos.

The Japanese experts informed the President that preliminary studies on the railway line showed that some 300 million to $60 million are needed to achieve modernization of the system.

The fields of studies conducted included technical services, rolling stock and modern equipment for a two way railroad tracks.

They also said no treasury funds would be involved in the improvement of the railroad firm because the credits to be negotiated by the PNR would be repaid from the increased income of the corporation resulting from the modernization and expansion of its services and facilities.

The JECKK is currently preparing a bankable project study for the PNR to support its bid for a total of $60 million worth of credits from various overseas financing institutions.

The availability of Japanese support of the long-term socio-economic development program in general was promised to President Macapagal by Premier Haya to Ikesa during the latter's visit to the Philippines.

release and use of PCSO funds.

Pelaez pointed out that, at present, sweepstakes funds are released on the date system. "This short range method," he said, "enabled politicians to claim credit for small piecemeal projects, such as a pisciculture center, without accepting responsibility for its maintenance."

The Vice President deplored the staggering waste of funds in health center and other similar projects that had fallen into disuse due to lack of equipment and maintenance funds.

To remedy this situation, Pelaez proposed that a permanent foundation be set up.

Yet, when the P.N.B. appointed a permanent lawyer to the Legaspi Branch Trinidad was bypassed and the position was given to a new lawyer who is only one year with the P.N.B. just because he got connections.

Mr. Fiderexon, as spokesman of the local Union of the National Bank said that the National Bank have been notified of the intention of the Union to go on strike for a long time now but somehow the management have not done anything to avoid the strike. He appealed to the public to please bear with them for sometime since they are only seeking justice and no more. He said further that eventually what they are asking will benefit the public, the Bank and the employees as well.

Meanwhile, other Banks operating in the City of Naga increased their volume of business as a result of the disruption of transactions at the Naga Branch of the P.N.B. Dumaguin

I take pleasure in greeting all the people of the City of Naga and their guests as they celebrate the traditional festivities in honor of Our Lady of Penafrancia.

Once again, devotees from the various parts of the Bicol Region and elsewhere will converge to this beautiful City with a common objective, the desire to share with the Naguenes their wonderful tradition which is well-known throughout the Philippines. The people of Naga City have every reason to be proud of their own city, not only of its memorable past but also of the fact that the training centers for our youth in the religious, cultural and academic fields are all conveniently established hereabouts. On this occasion, I also convey my felicitations to our civic, religious, cultural and political leaders for their selfless and collective efforts not only in making their traditional festivities a usual success, but also in shaping this beautiful city of what she is today.

May I therefore convey my heartfelt congratulations and prayer for your continued success and happiness the years through.

PNB strike...

La Union, Mt. Province, Ilocos Sur, and Ilocos Norte to the north and Rizal, Laguna, Quezon, Camarines Norte, Camarines Sur, Albay and Sorsogon to the south. Reports say that thousands of passengers in these lines were left stranded in different stations when the union struck. Many passengers were forced to sleep on the benches at the different stations.

It is to be regretted that the MRR strike started during the week of the famous regional Penafrancia fiesta in Naga City. Not only passengers were badly affected but also the business firms who have goods ordered from and to Manila. The MRR also is destined to suffer a loss of no less than P75,000 daily.

It is hoped that the strike would be settled without delay.
