

Our New Father Rector

It is a two-fold pleasure to welcome Reverend Father Kondring, the new Rector of the University of San Carlos, because Father Kondring is an old friend, not a stranger to this institution, and also because he is a truly likeable man. He has impressed us with his genuine concern over the needs and desires of the faculty members; he has exhibited a clear-cut concept of the true educator and has urged us the faculty members, to strive to attain that ideal; he has shown us his very human quality of enjoying a good story and knowing how to tell one. In the two months that he has been with us, we have not yet found anything in him to carp about — not that we try to find a fault in him but that we hope to find in him the belief that a Rector is one who "rectifies or sets a right that which needs correction."

We therefore welcome our Reverend Fr. Rector with love and with hope. Would to God that he look on us with charity!
