Wearing Some of Her Attractive Frocks

The top-coat and poke bonnet are pink flannel with red-checked ribbons. The coat collar and cuffs are red-checked gingham. The gloves are white to match the shoes and socks.

Blue and white linen cut in bonero effect with back and front panels, a neck drawstring of braided wool with cuddly balls.

White broadcloth dress with colored letters of the alphabet scattered anywhere. Horizontal pleating forms the yoke and extends beyond to make the perky sleeves. Inverted pleats at either side give plenty of room for romping.

Shirley hopes that other little girls will like these dresses, too.
