

FORT SANTIAGO

These pictures, with the one in the center, right, were taken during the National Heroes Day at Fort Santiago. The left shows part of the crowd. In the center, the lone cross during the ceremony is seen. The assemblage during the ceremony, Top, right, floral offerings being presented by Mrs. President Quirino, Mrs. Trinita Quirino, and late Mrs. Aurora Quezon during the ceremony, right, taken in 1943 by a Japanese soldier. The crowd out of Fort Santiago, are seen in the center, right. C. Bennett, George Bonner, and Benito Padilla, right: some of the widows and children of the fallen during the ceremonies during the celebration.

FORT SANTIAGO SCENES

These pictures, with the exception of the one at center, right, were taken during past celebrations of National Heroes Day at Fort Santiago under the auspices of the Philippine Ex-Political Prisoners' Association. Top, left shows part of the crowd that gathered around the lone cross during the ceremonies in 1947. Below, left, is seen the assemblage during the observance in 1948. Top, right, floral offerings being made by the then Vice-President Quirino, Mrs. Trinidad de Leon-Roxas and the late Mrs. Aurora Quezon during rites in 1946. Center right, taken in 1943 by a Japanese officer and smuggled out of Fort Santiago, are seen some of the inmates: Roy C. Bennet, George Bonner, Esteban Vabre, R. McCullough-Dick and Benito Pagan (left to right). Below, right: some of the widows and orphans listening to the ceremonies during the celebration of 1947.

SCENES

ception of the one at past celebrations of Nagiago under the auspices isoners' Association. Top, hat gathered around the s in 1947. Below, left,
the observance in 1948, made by the then Vice-de Leon-Roxas and the g rites in 1946. Center ese officer and smuggled one of the inmates: Roy to Vabre, R. McCul(left to right) Below,
orphans listening to the on of 1947.

