PETE L. AMPOLOQUIO

My good friend and paisano, Mr. Diez, the "Partial Reviewer" was introduced by Governor A. B. Cledera to Mayor Tony Villegas some weeks ago as a man who is like a father to him. Mr. Diez, incidentally is the political adviser of the Governor. Now, I know what fatherly political advice he will give to Pading Manding in 1969 - Help Fuente for 5th term bid. Mr. Diez is a principled and disciplined man. I don't think he will prefer a Liberal over a Nacionalista candidate in 1969

There seems to be a lot of noise created by the fencing of ARMOUR'S lot near the RCA area, this city. Armour is reported to have fenced his lot deep within the 7-meter distance from the center of the street. The question is simple, and need not bother anyone. If the City paid for the land, it can insist on the 7-meter distance. If it has not paid for the land, it has no right to insist. We have laws giving us just compensation for properties that the state may need, and other laws for that matter.

Governor Cledera is a man of guts and strong will, but I don't think he can control the electric jans installed in his office. The control mechanism was removed and sold reportedly to an electrical supplies store at General Luna street, this city. For further information, Mr. Governor, please inquire from a certain Tom in your office. I was told that he knows the whole story.

The Cledera administration, in my humble opinion, is trying hard to get things done. Strangely enough, Mr. Cledera seems to be slow in the direction of availing of the mass media to keep people informed about what actually is happening in his administration. It appears that the Governor does not trust the working press. He can do all the good things that he can think of but he won't reach first base if the press publishes only the small, but unfavorable stories about him and his administration. President Quirino was destroyed by foolish talks about an "urinola" costing 500 pesos. Foolish talks (true or false) about anybody are better remembered than good ones.

I humbly believe that the Reclamation Committee under the chairmanship of Councilor Del Castillo has a right to function with the freedom of movement. To heckle him at every turn may do more harm than good. It is only fair that we start by assuming that he has good faith and love for this city like all other councilors. Let's give the guy a chance.

Liboton Barrio Council, HCMC Conduct Lectures To Youth Here

The Liboton Barrio Council, in cooperation with the Home Catechetical Mission of Caceres, launched last week the First Liboton Youth Seminar at the San Andres residence, Jacob St., this city. The Seminar is a weekly lecture-discussion session on the youth of today, conducted by expert lecturers from Manila and Naga City.

Guest lecturer during the first session, last Sunday, was Miss Betty Villa, former vice-president of the International Federation of Young Christian Workers. She spoke on "The Role of the Youth in the Community."

In her lecture, Miss Villa challenged the youth to prove with concrete projects that they are the pillars of their community's progress.

Miss Villa, before coming to the city, had worked with the youth of Africa, Latin America, and Southeast Asian countries. She will again speak before the Liboton youth during the latter part of the Seminar.

Meanwhile, Dean Evelyn Maronilla-Seva of the Colegio de Sta. Isabel will be the guest lecturer at Tomorrow's [Sunday] session. She will speak on "The

4 Journalism Studies of S. U. Take Internship

Four junior students in Journalism from Silliman University will go out and work with the mass media as interns this summer, in the only journalism internship program in the Philippines.

Edna Flores will work with the Agence France-Press [French News Agency] in Manila; Elma Abellanosa, society editor of the Weekly Sillimanian this year, will work with the Cebu Advocate, a daily;

Franklin Ituriaga, this year's news editor of the Weekly Star.

Libre'ng Pilipino (12)

BUHI BECKONS ...

"Undeveloped But Potentially a Great Tourist Site."
- Frank R. Hernandez

The Libre'ng Pilipino is a picture of contemporary life transcending social change and development of the local scenery. From time to time under the series will be presented tidbit biographies of personalities who one way or another had shared or contributed to the uplift of the Pilipino environment.

The Need for a Tourist Spectacle

Int'l. Tourism Year - This being a tourism year - it is about time that this premier province of Bicolandia should vie as a matter of consciousness - inspire to develop the vast potentialities of a tourist site as a tourist spectacle.

It should not be amiss to say the least that by harnessing the promotional gear toward all-out interest in tourism - it can be considered both as wise and expedient the cultivation and development of a beautiful spot which could produce the end results to attract the incessant flow of tourist trade within our boundaries.

It is a sad note to make the observations that the previous provincial administration has left a big void which should be filled to dramatize our participation and involvement into the tourist area where other provinces before us such as neighboring Albay or Sorsogon for this matter are now making such bountiful harvests as worthwhile dividends for past endeavors.

Our Future Tourist Paradise

In an earlier interview sometime in February of this year, our energetic and imaginative provincial secretary - the honorable Mr. Silverio Veluz has intimated to this reporter his plans vis-a-vis the development of the Tourist town of Buhì which was the subject of the secretary's communication to the Board of Travel and Tourist Industry last year just before the electoral campaigns.

As an offshoot of this initiative along with the age-old desire of this writer to arouse interest among the private and government sectors calling our government instrumentalities to lay the groundwork or such a well-meaning and well-intended development tourist project within the course of the foreseeable future.

Frenchmen Need Reforms For A Change

The Antidote to Chaos and Disorder - President Charles de Gaulle's Fifth Republic stands still today on the verge of anarchy. Half a million students and 8-million French industrial workers, teachers in and around Paris joined hand to ignore the orders of the government in exchange for massive reforms in education, higher wages, better living conditions, etc.

This is the reaction of Frenchmen today after following up the second term of President de Gaulle's government. True - Charles de Gaulle brought France from a tottering pedestal to one of economic stability.

But this is not all - spiralling prices have been telling on the French people. Economic stability should share the workers, the teachers, professors and students a better form of "equality, fraternity and liberty." Living conditions today is a very much different when all Frenchmen had to speak of the French Empire covering the different continents. Canada was lost, French Louisiana was sold to the new emerging American nation, French empire in Africa was lost when de Gaulle favored to give the revolting African colonies.
