3 Young Girls Missing Kickback Racket Denied; "Ridiculous" say Contractors

Three young girls, all students in the J. Pangamban high school J. Pangamban, Cam. Norte, were reported to the Bicol Star as missing from their homes since Jan. 3, 1969 by Mrs. Rufina Bermude Vda. de Obias, mother of Corazon Obias, 15, one of the missing girls. The other two companions when they disappeared, are Elena Istabello, 16 and Dolores Olaso, 15. The two girls appearing in the above picture are Miss Obias and Miss Istabello.

Anybody who knows of their whereabouts may kindly write Mrs. Rufina B. Obias, Parang St., Jose Paaganiban, Cam. Norte & receive a reward. No question asked.

"This is ridiculous," This was the general reaction of contractors when confronted last week by Dr. Jose P. Cledera, project director of the Interscholastic site, on the alleged kickback racket at the project.

Gathered at the Governor's Office to had light on the alleged anomaly as reported in a local paper, (not the Star) the contractors said it is impossible for them to give kickback to anybody considering that the price they are getting for sand and gravel is already lower than the prevailing market price by around P2 per cubic meter. The newspaper report said that a certain employee in the Governor's office has been demanding P1 for every cubic meter of sand and gravel.

Irrked by the report, Dr. Cledera also questioned some employees in the Governor's Office who are involved in the project, but all denied having
