

NEWS OF THE WEEK

July 18. The first setback in the inter-allied conference came today when an unsuccessful effort was made to iron many differences between the French Italians and British as to how to deal with possible German defaults under the Dawes scheme and the method of inflicting penalties for such delinquences.

Unofficial American suggestions laid before the experts did not produce a compromise agreement.

B. Aires. July 19. The correspondent of La Nation who arrived today from Santos Brazil, reports heavy troop movements are proceeding from Santos to aid the siege by the rebels of Sao Paulo. He said the morale of government troops was excellent.

Trustworthy information from Brazil today indicates that the rebels are getting the upperhand at Sao Paulo in the fighting with the federal forces.

McAlester, Okla. July 18. 300 armed men stormed today a force of non-union workers at a mine. The guards were disarmed and forced to accompany the assailants into Latimer county.

B. Aires. July 20. Uncensored dispatches from Brasil today say the rebels have 20,000 armed men awaiting an attack from the federals in strategic points about the city of Sao Paulo with artillery on cliffs.

Washington July 19. President Coolidge today expressed the opinion that Republican prospects were hopeful.

John W. Davis, Democratic nominee for president will make his keynote and acceptance speech on August 11th.

London July 19. Owen D. Young today made public a message from Charles G. Dawes declaring he is optimistic on the reparations settlement.

Athens, July 19. The Greek cabinet has fallen. A crisis has been threatening since the resignation of the ministers of war and finance in June.

They alleged that the government was encouraging communism.

Three courts-martial will be necessary to handle the cases of the 253 conscientious objectors in the Philippine Scout regiments at Fort McKinley, the majority charged with failure to report for duty, others charged with holding secret meetings regarding military affairs.

Speaker Manuel Roxas in a three-hour speech at the Club Filipino advocates continuance of Missions in United States, and discusses Independence question. He cited many of the difficulties he and the rest of the Mission met with and said that the opponents of Filipino freedom are divided into several classes, he maned.

The speech was delivered after the banquet given in his honor the day of his arrival into the Islands from America.

Washington July 20. Former President of Honduras, General Emilio Chamorro is planning a revolution in Salvador, according to reports reached this city.

A quantity of munitions are said to be secretly stored at Chantales. President Martinez has summoned General Chamorro to appear before him and answer question in reference to this.

Teheran, July 20. Martial Law has been declared on account of the disturbances in connection with the killing of Robert W. Imbrey, American Vice-Consul by a mob last Friday.

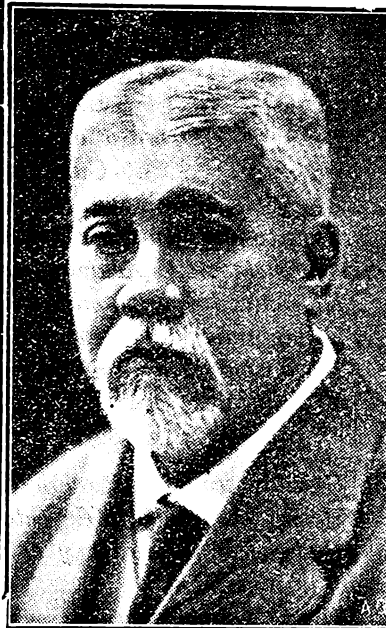

Three Filipinos have been arrested for an investigation by the police of Honolulu on what is understood to be an alleged conspiracy to blow up the home of Cayetano Ligot, Philippine Labor commissioner, what has been opposed to the strike.

Secretary of the Interior, Agoncillo, refuses to be dragged to Inquisitorial Session, invoking the principle of separation of Powers. He is upheld by Governor General Wood, who reiterates that the Department Heads are responsible to him only.

New York, July 22. The promise of American assistance to Europe and growing confidence that the present allied conference in London will provide aid for Europe to accord with the Dawes plan, carried demand sterling above 4.41 today.

Tokyo, Japan, July 22. Japanese Nationalist urge a close pact with Germany and Russia, "the three orphans of the world", for their common protection against Anglo-Saxon domination.

¡D. Manuel Araullo ha muerto!

El integérrimo presidente de nuestro Tribunal Supremo, el probo juez, el perfecto caballero, el modelo de esposos y padres de familia, el católico convencido, ha entregado su alma a Dios rodeado de su amantísima familia y asistido con los auxilios de nuestra sacrosanta Religión por el Padre Prior de Santo Domingo Reverendo Fr. Jesús Bort y de su confesor el P. Yebenes.

La pertinaz y grave dolencia que desde hace tiempo le aquejaba se hizo gravísima estos últimos días venciendo a la naturaleza desgastada del anciano jurisconsulto (tenía 72 años) y a los esfuerzos sobre humanos de la Ciencia.

ESTUDIO envía a la distinguida familia del difunto la expresión de su sentida condolencia y ruega a sus lectores que eleven sus preces al cielo por el alma del finado.

R. I. P.

Donde quiera que viaje Vd
Las Maletas y Baulas
RIU
Ofrecen Comodidad y Seguridad.
EL ESTABLECIMIENTO MAS SURTIDO EN
GUARNICIONES
MONTURAS
POLAINAS
LATIGOS
PORTFOLIOS
CINTURONES
CARTERAS
Y
PORTA MONEDAS

Catálogo
Gratis

RIU HERMANOS
ESCOLTA 131-133 MANILA, P.I.

Suscríbase
a
ESTUDIO