and other small Christmas items for the underprivileged children in the various wards of Manila hospitals. For this purpose, Wor. Bro. Johnson was appointed to buy the candies and distribute the same, with the assistance of Bro. Virgilio Balagot and Bro. Alfredo R. Embrador who were then members of the Charity Committee. Wor. Bro. Johnson got the candies and the distribution was made. But up to this time, Wor. Bro. Johnson has never asked for a reimbursement of the expenses he incurred. I never knew the reason why.

But when I was preparing the notes for this report, I found out that Wor. Bro. Johnson was the master in 1961. It was he who advocated strongly for a more expanded activities of the Charity Committee. The record shows that he implemented with vigor and enthusiasm the activities of the Charity Committee. At the time I appointed him to buy the candies and to distribute the same, it escaped my attention that he owns the Chocolate House, a manufacturer of candies and pastries. I hope I did not, by such appointment, unfairly extort from Wor. Bro. Johnson a generous donation of candies for the underprivileged children.

Last Easter the lodge authorized the Charity Committee to provide Easter eggs, candies, jelly beans and chewing gum to about 400 boys and girls at the Children's Garden in Taytay, Rizal. The amount of 500 pesos was earmarked for this project. After procuring all the items needed and after placing them in dainty baskets, complete with excelsior, the Charity Committee had spent only about 360 pesos. This small project made 400 boys and girls happy and for the first time in their lives, enjoyed a truly good Easter. Based on the success of this first Easter project, it seems that the present thinking of the lodge members is to make the Easter eggs project an annual affair of the lodge.

Worshipful Master, this concludes this special report. △ lend their enormous strength to build our buildings more securely and put the temples they build to the ennobling purposes in which they were conceived.

May I say Godspeed to the Ill. Potentate, his Divan and their ladies, and sincerely hope that, in their short sojourn with us, they may have found some measure of inspiration that may lead them to greater achievements. And to our visitors from overseas, may the spirit of the Philippines always remain in your hearts.
