

STAR LANTERN

Star lantern, my star lantern,
I shall put you up tonight,
And from my window you will send
A radiance soft and bright.

Your light will be so lovely
That people passing by
Shall remember the first Christmas Eve
And a Star up in the sky.

A Star that told Three Wise Kings
Of a little Baby's birth;
A Baby who grew up to be
Ruler of heaven and earth.

—Amparo C. de los Reyes

Gift. Dr. Ponchaquis.