are straight,

Do you think at your age it is right?" "In my youth," said the book, "I came into hands

Of children who 'handled with care'; They opened me gently, their fingers were clean,

Your covers are stiff and your corners My margins they kept clean and fair." "They never used pencils as bookmarks

To pull me apart in their strife.

With such kindly treatment my strength and my looks

Will last me the rest of my life."
