WORLD HEALTH DAY

(Proclamation No. 129, dated May 6, 1949, of the President of the Philippines.)

"WHEREAS, the first World Health Assembly adopted a resolution in July, 1948, suggesting that the 22nd day of July each year be set aside as "World Health Day";

"WHEREAS, the observance of a "World Health Day" would arouse public interest in, and support of, the aims of the World Health Organization, of which the Philippines is a member; and
 "WHEREAS, the health of mankind is one of the factors contributory to world peace, harmony and understanding;

"NOW, THEREFORE, I, ELPIDIO QUIRINO, President of the Philippines, do hereby declare the twenty-second day of July of each year as 'World Health Day'."
