

try. It is astounding what some men accomplish in their leisure. John Stuart Mill was a clerk in the East India Office. He became one of the world's leading authorities on political economy.

Not every person in the world can become such a personage. But every person can become a personality. The happiest people are those who think the most interesting thoughts. Interesting thoughts can live only in cultivated minds. Those who decide to use leisure as a means of mental development, who love good music, good books, good pictures, good plays at the theater, good company, good conversation — what are they? They are the happiest people in the world; they are not only happy in themselves, they are the cause of happiness in others. — By William Lyon Phelps, condensed from The Delineator, May, 1930.

THE ADMIRABLE JEWS

They are an ancient people, a famous people, an enduring people, and a people who in the end have generally attained their objects. I hope Parliament may endure forever, and sometimes I think it will; but I cannot help remembering that the Jews have outlived Assyrian kings, Egyptian Pharaohs, Roman Caesars, and Arabian Caliphs. — Benjamin Disraeli