

School Days Are Here Again

And now vacation time is o'er,
We leave our play haunts far behind.
We leave our toys, we leave our friends,
Now for school days we prepare.

From out their hiding nooks we get,
Our friendly books in leather bags.
We clean our shoes, our clothes we press,
To look more neat we bathe ourselves.

To school again each day we run,
To work and play 'tis lots of fun.
We'll meet new wonders once again,
The more we work, the more we learn!
