Decalogue of Protectionism

1. Cherish your own above all others.
2. Honor your country's products, her industries and her commerce.
3. Think and act as a Filipino on economic matters.
4. Do not consume foreign goods if the same are produced locally.
5. Give protection to the business of your own countrymen rather than to that of aliens.
6. Bear in mind this great truth: that a country without a patrimony is miserable.
7. Exert your will to the end that the wealth of the country shall fall in the hands of Filipinos, and let that wealth be the foundation of our nationalism.
8. Help exalt the welfare of workers of your own blood, and obey that natural law that orders a brother to help another brother.
9. Practice protectionism with deeds, and not with words.
10. Be constant and strong in the exercise of this virtue: Be silent if you are weak, and your heart be craven.
